1. Attendance. An ALM is required to regularly attend ALM meetings and Executive Council Meetings. Please indicate if you have attended or plan to attend any of the following Executive Council Meetings as a guest.

☒ Breakers, Palm Beach (July 2022)

☐ Bay Harbor, Maine (September 2022)

☒ Orlando (December 2022)

☒ Sandestin (February 2023)

Please indicate whether if elected as an ALM you will be able to commit to attending ALM meetings and Executive Council Meetings (there are generally 4 in-state meetings and 1 out of state meeting a year). Attendance in at least 2 in-state meetings is expected each year.

☒ I am able to commit to attending meetings

☐ I am not able to commit to attending meetings

2. Committee Participation: An ALM is required to be active in at least one Section Committee. Please list the Section Committee(s) you currently participate in (or would participate in) and what you have contributed (or could contribute) to each Committee:

I am a member of the Asset Protection committee and was recently added as a committee member for Guardianship and Advanced Directives. My goal is to become a member of the Probate Law and Procedure committee after the RPPTL meetings in Orlando. I plan to be an active member of each committee by attending the meetings, taking minutes (if applicable), and participating in subcommittees to help advance the mission of each committee. I have also attended the in-State ALMs meetings throughout 2022 and have assisted the Director with research for ALMs interim appointments.

3. Local Involvement: An ALM is encouraged to be active in his or her Circuit's local bar activities (especially those concerning any local real property, probate or trust law committees). Please list and explain your involvement in local bar activities:

   I am located in Fort Myers and am a member of the Lee County Bar Association in Lee County. I have attended RPPTL webinars spearheaded by Peter Knize of the Naples Trust Company located in Naples. I am also a member of the Gwen S. Cherry Bar Association located in Miami Dade County and have attended membership meetings held virtually; however, due to events being in person, it has been difficult to attend events since COVID restrictions have been lifted. However, my goal is to become more involved in the Lee County Bar Association this upcoming year.

4. Communication: An ALM is expected to be a communication conduit between the Section and the Section members in his or her Circuit. Please indicate how you would make efforts to communicate Section information to members at large in your area.

   I proposed to create a social media page(s), i.e., on Facebook, Instagram, and create a Listserv email to disseminate Section information to members located in my area. If needed, schedule zoom meetings throughout the year to have a "check in" with the members to keep them current on issues of concern and allow them to communicate any concerns that they may have. I will communicate any concerns to the Section.

5. Outreach: ALMs are encouraged to contact new Section members in his or her Circuit, to let them know how they might get involved in the Section. Please explain how you would fulfill this responsibility:

   I propose the same plan(s) as presented in question #4 and encourage new Section members to participate in the social media platforms and to sign up for email correspondence.

6. Recent Involvement with Legal Aid:

   As a young lawyer (attorney experience not age), I have focused my time with perfecting my craft. Therefore, I have not had the opportunity to assist with Legal Aid. However, I was recruited (and gladly accepted the assignment) by Attorney Laird Lile, at the Breakers' meeting in July 2022, to assist with a Pro Bono case assigned by the ALM's committee. Unfortunately, that assignment did not move forward as planned.

7. Recent Involvement with Law Schools:

I am Alum of Ave Maria School of Law ("AMSL") and I have unofficially mentored minority law students from AMSL to assist them with maneuvering through law school. I plan to be more involved with AMSL with the assistance of my mentor, Michael Sneeringer. Mr. Sneeringer has been instrumental in introducing RRPTL to me while was in law school and even know as a young lawyer, he continues to mentor me in the legal field. I will pay it forward and mentor future lawyers who are interested in RPPTL to gain knowledge about this Committee and overall legal field.

8. Speaking / Writing:

A series of "Death Over Cocktails" was birthed to educate the community about Estate Planning, Probate, Guardianship, Business, and Preneed burial planning. The first event occurred on October 27th, at St. Fort Funeral home in North Miami. I am excited to be a part of this series to educate the community about Estate and Business Planning. During the October event, I spoke about the importance of Business planning and how to plan for death as a business owner.

The next event is scheduled for Saturday, December 17th, at 11 am at the Little Haiti Cultural Center in Miami. At this event, I will speak about the importance of Estate Planning and Guardianship.

In addition, I was the guest speaker at the Fort Myers Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority's Super Senior Event on November 29, 2022, at the Renaissance Preserve Community for Seniors in Fort Myers. My topic was "Explaining Wills, Trusts, and Advanced Directives." I look forward to speaking at more events in the future. Consequently, I have been asked by the Community Director of the Renaissance Preserve to speak at their future events for Seniors.

9. Suggestions: Please list two suggestions you have for ways to improve communications to Section Members at Large:

   1) To make sure that there is communication dessiminating to the Section's At Large Members. I know this sounds simple; however, communication is key and without it, information tend to get lost.

   2) To propose the same plan(s) as presented in question #4, to assist with disseminating valuable information to the Members at Large.

☒ Orlando (December 2022)

☐ Sandestin (February 2023)

Please indicate whether if elected as an ALM you will be able to commit to attending ALM meetings and Executive Council Meetings (there are generally 4 in-state meetings and 1 out of state meeting a year). Attendance in at least 2 in-state meetings is expected each year.

☒ I am able to commit to attending meetings

☐ I am not able to commit to attending meetings

2. Committee Participation: An ALM is required to be active in at least one Section Committee. Please list the Section Committee(s) you currently participate in (or would participate in) and what you have contributed (or could contribute) to each Committee:

I have participated in the Condominium & Planned Development Committee and recently participated in the SB-4D Technical Amendments Task Force. I regularly attended the Task Force meetings and contributed to the research and technical bill recommendations. Before the Zoom meetings, I had never attended a Committee meeting, but had always been interested in the Section and would learn more through the CLEs and Condomania. I have been practicing in the area of Condominium and Planned Development law and representing HOAs, Condos, and Cooperative clients for 17 years, first with Wean & Malchow, P.A., then with the same legal team as part of Mateer Harbert, P.A., and now with the Law Offices of John L. DiMasi, P.A. I have been Board Certified in Condominium & Planned Development Law since 2019.

3. Local Involvement: An ALM is encouraged to be active in his or her Circuit's local bar activities (especially those concerning any local real property, probate or trust law committees). Please list and explain your involvement in local bar activities:

Allison Hertz recently recommended me to the Ninth Circuit ALMs to present a Legislative update concerning SB-4D, based on our work in the task force and my contributions to the discussion. This connected me with Fred Jones and I was invited to provide a presentation during their October ALMS/CFREAC meeting. Based on that presentation, I have also been asked by Roger Kesselbach to present at the Space Coast Condominiums Association, Inc., January meeting to discuss the bill and its effects on the condominiums and communities in Brevard and Volusia counties.

4. Communication: An ALM is expected to be a communication conduit between the Section and the Section members in his or her Circuit. Please indicate how you would make efforts to communicate Section information to members at large in your area.

I am very interested in becoming more involved with RPPTL and the individual committees, and would be looking for additional opportunities to connect with other RPPTL members and Association attorneys.

5. Outreach: ALMs are encouraged to contact new Section members in his or her Circuit, to let them know how they might get involved in the Section. Please explain how you would fulfill this responsibility:

The Ninth Circuit ALMs meeting was a wonderful way of connecting me (as a fairly new RPPTL committee member) with established ALMs in our legal community. I was relatively unaware that there was so much activity happening in our Section, so I would love to help promote our group and encourage others to attend such meetings, for them to realize the benefits of connecting and getting involved, by having more local meetings and encouraging those new Section members to attend, so that they understand the wealth of knowledge and topics that are shared in those discussions.

6. Recent Involvement with Legal Aid:

I admit I have not been very involved with Legal Aid.

7. Recent Involvement with Law Schools:

I went to law school in Nebraska, and have not had the opportunity to be involved with Law schools here in Florida.

8. Speaking / Writing:

Most of the speaking and writing I have done during my professional career has been to clients concerning the operation and management of community associations. I have written several articles for our newsletters, especially during my time at Wean & Malchow, P.A., in Orlando. I have been a panelist several times for the Space Coast Condominium Association meetings, and have spoken to both clients and professional groups on the topics of collection and foreclosure strategies, fair housing, disability rights and reasonable accommodations, service and emotional support animal issues, and annual legislative updates. I am also certified with the Florida Dept. of Business and Professional Regulations to provide continuing education for Community Association Managers.

9. Suggestions: Please list two suggestions you have for ways to improve communications to Section Members at Large:

   1) Increased awareness about local meetings, which then encourages new members to attend and participate in learning about new areas of their practice. For instance, as an HOA/Condo lawyer, there are so many aspects of real property and Estate law that are fascinating to me that I would have not otherwise been exposed.

   2) I also like the idea of the Mentor/Mentee projects, but I think that rather than mentoring newer attorneys it would be interesting to put attorneys who are seasoned with mid-career attorneys who have a successful law career and are now interested in taking that to the next level by getting more involved with legislation, education (CLEs), leadership, and practice management.

Founded the Guardianship and Probate Group for St. Johns County with Judge Kenneth J. Janesk II that meets quarterly and includes local attorneys, clerks, professional Guardians, examining committee members and any other professionals involved with probate and guardianship in St. Johns County and the surrounding areas. I give RPPTL report at each meeting and encourage everyone to participate in RPPTL. I am a member of the St. Johns, Putnam and Flagler County Bar Associations. I participate in St. Johns more than the others but try to participate in all as much as I am able. Actively participate in the St. Augustine Inn of Court. Although not exactly on point, I was appointed by the Governor to the 5th DCA Judicial Nominating Commission, and I always look for applicants with experience in RPPTL areas of law and encourage those with such experience to apply. We recently submitted names to fill four vacancies and multiple nominees had experience in RPPTL areas of law. I did the same when I served for many years on the 7th Circuit JNC. I always reach out to RPPTL colleagues for their input on the applicants.

4. Communication: An ALM is expected to be a communication conduit between the Section and the Section members in his or her Circuit. Please indicate how you would make efforts to communicate Section information to members at large in your area.

Authored numerous articles on estate and tax planning for local publications.

2. Committee Participation: An ALM is required to be active in at least one Section Committee. Please list the Section Committee(s) you currently participate in (or would participate in) and what you have contributed (or could contribute) to each Committee:

I currently participate in the following committees: Condominium & Planned Development, Development and Land Use, Real Estate Leasing, and Real Finance & Lending. I currently contribute as the Meetings Secretary for the Property Development and Land Use Committee, and as a member of the Non-Residential Condominium Issues Subcommittee for the Condominium & Planned Development Committee.

3. Local Involvement: An ALM is encouraged to be active in his or her Circuit's local bar activities (especially those concerning any local real property, probate or trust law committees). Please list and explain your involvement in local bar activities:

   I am not currently involved in any local bar activities; however, I am able and willing to commit to become more active in local bar activities related to real property. It could be helpful to liaison with local groups in order to bring Section updates to those groups, encourage membership, and learn of new opportunities for the Section to get involved.

4. Communication: An ALM is expected to be a communication conduit between the Section and the Section members in his or her Circuit. Please indicate how you would make efforts to communicate Section information to members at large in your area.

   I think it would be helpful to create a system of internal communication among 17th Circuit ALMs (to the extent not already ongoing) in order to make external communication more targeted and streamlined. A Circuit listserv could be helpful, as well as localized events and/or CLEs for Section members in the Circuit.

5. Outreach: ALMs are encouraged to contact new Section members in his or her Circuit, to let them know how they might get involved in the Section. Please explain how you would fulfill this responsibility:

   I would reach out via phone and/or email and invite new members (on a quarterly or semi-annual basis) to an informal meet and greet to learn more about the Section and how to get involved.

6. Recent Involvement with Legal Aid:

   I do not have any recent involvement with Legal Aid, but am willing to get involved through the Section.

7. Recent Involvement with Law Schools:

   I went to Florida International University School of Law and have alumni relationships

there. I do not have recent involvement with Nova Law School (in my Circuit), but I am willing to get involved with/help spearhead law school projects and events to make the Section's presence known to law students at Nova (and FIU to the extent that Circuit wants additional assistance from a graduate).

8. Speaking / Writing:

Part of in-Circuit communications could include calls for articles/topics for Action Line. To the extent we receive topics but not authors, I am happy to volunteer to write RP related articles.

9. Suggestions: Please list two suggestions you have for ways to improve communications to Section Members at Large:

   1) Monthly emails to Section members in my Circuit could be a good way to keep the Section relevant to less involved members.

   2) In person events for local members of the Circuit, perhaps jointly with Miami-Dade could be a great way to improve recognition and communication to Section Members.

3. Local Involvement: An ALM is encouraged to be active in his or her Circuit's local bar activities (especially those concerning any local real property, probate or trust law committees). Please list and explain your involvement in local bar activities:

a) Immediate Past President of Clearwater Bar Association (currently serve on Board)
   i. Clearwater Bar Association Probate Section, Member
   ii. Past President, Clearwater Bar Association
   iii. Past President, Clearwater Bar Association Young Lawyers Division

b) Co-Chair of President of The Florida Bar's Special Committee on Mentoring of New Lawyers (creating The Florida Bar's first statewide mentoring program)

c) Supreme Court of Florida Judicial Management Council, Lawyer Member
   i. Appointed by Former Chief Justice Charles Canady, Supreme Court of Florida

e) St. Petersburg Bar Association – Member and Guest Speaker

f) Hillsborough County Bar Association – Member

f) Past President of The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division Board of Governors (2017-2018)

I have been involved in the leadership of my local bar association and The Florida Bar since starting the practice of law approximately 16 years ago. Locally, I have served as President of the Clearwater Bar Association and its Young Lawyers Division;

Chair of the Civil Litigation Section; Chair of the Probate Section; and have been actively involved in its Probate Section. I have served as a speaker for the probate sections of the Clearwater Bar and St. Petersburg Bar Associations.

I am routinely asked to speak at Inns of Court in both Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties on various topics.

I am routinely asked to speak at Stetson College of Law Events. Recently, I assisted in leading a Speed Mentoring Event with Stetson's Black Law Student Association.

Currently, I serve as Co-Chair of The Florida Bar's Special Committee on the Mentoring of New Lawyers. In this role, President Gary Lesser has tasked the Special Committee with creating The Florida Bar's first statewide mentoring program, to be launched in June 2023. I believe the platform of this mentoring program could be leveraged for the RPPTL Section.

Historically, I was recruited by The Florida Bar to work with now President-Elect Scott Westheimer in leading the creation of its resource now called Legal Fuel, which I helped create, and I assisted leadership in the redesign of The Florida Bar website.

As President of The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division, I developed the concept and led the creation of the Legal Accelerator, a virtual mentor for young lawyers, and as a member, I was co-chair of the committee that created www.startmyfloridalawfirm.com. As a statewide President of The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division, I cultivated relationships with voluntary bar associations across the state, and I have worked to maintain those relationships over the years, for example, at events like Annual Convention and voluntary bar association marquis events, like galas and fundraisers.

4. Communication: An ALM is expected to be a communication conduit between the Section and the Section members in his or her Circuit. Please indicate how you would make efforts to communicate Section information to members at large in your area.

As a heavily active member of the bar associations in Tampa Bay, I have many opportunities to communicate with lawyers. Those opportunities range from Clearwater Bar Association meetings and events, including Probate Section events, the St. Petersburg Bar Association, including its Probate Section events, Stetson College of Law events, and various legal events at which I am asked to speak, like Inns of Court. I also have a strong presence on social media with lawyers in my area to whom I can communicate online as well.

5. Outreach: ALMs are encouraged to contact new Section members in his or her Circuit, to let them know how they might get involved in the Section. Please explain how you would fulfill this responsibility:

In my experience with local and Florida Bar section and division leadership, the personal connection is what makes the difference. I pick up the phone to welcome new members and personally invite them to functions. I regularly email new members, or members I have not seen in a while, to personally encourage them to attend events. For example, last year as President of the Clearwater Bar Association, I sent individual emails to approximately 150 Judges and lawyers before every luncheon and major event encouraging them to attend. I also regularly send handwritten cards to people. When people feel wanted, they attend.

6. Recent Involvement with Legal Aid:

I am not currently involved with Legal Aid. In the past, I assisted with the Florida Bar Pro Bono Matters initiatives. And, I have helped administer the FEMA hotline with The Florida Bar.

7. Recent Involvement with Law Schools:

Recently, I participated in a Stetson College of Law Black Law Student Association Speed Mentoring Program event. Because it was the first in-person event many of the students had attended as a law student (and many were 3Ls), I stayed for an hour after the program to explain how The Florida Bar works, how local bar associations and Inns of Court work, and ways to get involved as students and young lawyers. I was then contacted by a few of the law students who requested a meeting with me to discuss law school and post-law school plans. I met each student individually at Starbucks.

Until Covid hit, I presented every year to WMU-Cooley Law School's Tampa Bay's Solo and Small Firm Class on how to run a small law firm.

I typically serve as a mentor to a Stetson College of Law student every year or other year. My current mentee transferred to the University of Florida, but I still keep in contact with him.

I led the creation of The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division Law Student Division Mentoring Program, which was administered at the 12 operating Florida law schools at that time.

8. Speaking / Writing:

2023, Trust and Litigation Symposium, Presenter, "You Got Served!"

2022, Professional Fiduciary Council of America, Presenter, "Most Dangerous Job in America: Professional Fiduciary"

2022, Florida Bar Voluntary Bar Conference, Presenter, "How to Prepare for Your Year as President"

2018, Paralegal Association of Florida, Presenter, "How To Be An Office Superhero"

9. Suggestions: Please list two suggestions you have for ways to improve communications to Section Members at Large:

1) RPPTL communications could be rephrased and reformatted in a way that garners excitement from the reader and provides more clarity. Unless you are already connected or know someone connected, newer members are not given enough information to feel comfortable joining events. This, I believe, is the biggest area of improvement for RPPTL if the goal is to encourage more participation.

One, RPPTL should be branded with a font and colors. Those fonts and colors should be consistent, so when a reader scrolls through her emails, she knows it is a RPPTL email and knows stop to read it. The current formatting resembles the formatting of spam emails.

Two, if RPPTL is asking members to volunteer for an event, particularly a pro bono event, the email description should give some context for what the involvement level is. If the commitment is an hour or two, that should be specified. Otherwise, most lawyers assume it is a lengthy commitment and they do not feel like they have enough time to commit. They simply keep scrolling. Many legal aid and pro bono leaders have recognized this, and they estimate the time and effort involved in promoting individual pro bono opportunities to increase participation.

Three, RPPTL communications should explain why certain events are important. There are some incredible CLE events around the state. Details about what the day will be like, what to wear, generalized concepts they will learn, or major shifts in the law that will be addressed, should be highlighted and explained in a meaningful way. Simply copying and pasting the titles of presentations is not effective.

Four, it is not clear to new members what an At-Large Member (ALM) is, what the group does, and why a regular member would want to be one. The information is very difficult to find.

Five, the email communications about upcoming meetings and how to attend meetings makes a non-Exec member and non-ALM member feel disconnected from RPPTL. If RPPTL desires section members to feel welcome to attend meetings, the emails should clearly and easily explain 1) how to register 2) explain they are unlikely to be included in the reserved hotel room block and how to find accommodations elsewhere; 3) how to navigate meetings; 4) how to dress for the meetings; and 5) the schedule should explain what to expect at social events. If members are encouraged to bring spouses and children, those spouses want details about what to bring and what to wear so they are prepared to attend and participate in a meaningful way. Otherwise, many people are too intimidated to participate socially.

2) I think it would be effective for ALMs to host happy hour events in their respective areas to invite members. If RPPTL had promotional materials about upcoming events that could be printed off, or shared via email or text or QR Code, those could be shared by a familiar face at those happy hour events. It would provide the personal connection between the organization and uninvolved members.

3) The RPPTL website is in need of a redesign. It is overwhelmingly complicated to find information; the font and buttons are very small by today's web standards; and it does not show the personality of the organization or highlight its strengths.
