Meet in the hotel lobby and together you will board Tampa's free trolley at Station #9 for the 15-minute ride to Ybor City. Arrive and enjoy a 90 minute walking tour of this historical city. The rich history of Ybor encompasses manufacturing, immigration, organized crime, and revolution. It's one of three National Historic Landmark Districts in Florida and at one time Ybor City produced a half billion cigars annually.

Finish your trip with lunch (on your own dime) at the oldest Spanish restaurant in the United States that takes up an entire city block. The Columbia Restaurant serves both Spanish and Cuban cuisine and is famous for its 1905 salad and several other dishes curated by the five-generation family restaurant.
