HISTORIC WALKING TOUR

9:00 AM - 1:30 PM

The absolute best way to get to know the city. Your private tour guide will walk at a leisurely pace through 300 years of history, culture and architecture. This tour will include tales of private homes, public buildings, churches, gardens, and graveyards. Topics include early history, the Revolutionary War, Civil War, and the evolution of unique Charleston architecture. You'll also hear about our city's disasters such as earthquakes, plagues, floods, and hurricanes. The tour is fully interactive and questions are welcomed and encouraged. Spend a few hours with a tour guide and you will see Charleston differently. The tour will end with brunch at High Cotton restaurant.

MIDDLETON PLACE TOUR

9:00 AM - 1:30 PM

Located on the banks of the Ashley River about 15 miles outside the city of Charleston, Middleton Place's 110 vibrant acres include 65 acres of America's oldest landscaped gardens – floral allées, terraced lawns, a pair of ornamental lakes shaped like butterfly wings – as well as a House Museum, working Stable Yards with artisans and heritage breed animals. Be sure to visit Eliza's house and the working Blacksmith. The tour of Middleton Place includes a guided tour of the house, grounds, and narration during the transport there and back, as well as a lowcountry lunch buffet on the grounds before returning to town. Check it out: <https://www.middletonplace.org/>

SCHOONER PRIDE HARBOR TOUR

2:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Charleston Harbor is a great place to see and experience the rich maritime history of the City. Your guide will escort the group to and from their 3-mast Schooner and narrate on the way. Underway, your guide will position themselves at the front of the vessel and describe points of interest around the harbor including The Arthur Ravenel Jr. Bridge, The USS Yorktown, Castle Pinckney, Forts Sumter and Moultrie, The Battery, and many others. The guide will interact with the guests and answer any particular questions as well. There are restrooms on the boat, but the seating is limited.

GARDEN RECEPTION AT WILLIAM AIKEN HOUSE

6:00 PM - 9:00 PM

Enjoy a Garden Party with your RPPTL friends at Historic William Aiken House. Built in 1807, this amazing home is a short walk from the hotel on King Street.

HISTORIC WALKING TOUR

9:00 AM - 1:30 PM

For those that were not able to take the walking tour on Thursday, this is the last chance to see Charleston up close and personal, because the walking tour is the absolute best way to get to know the city. Your private tour guide will walk at a leisurely pace through 300 years of history, culture and architecture. This tour will include tales of private homes, public buildings, churches, gardens, and graveyards. Topics include early history, the Revolutionary War, Civil War, and the evolution of unique Charleston architecture. You'll also hear about our city's disasters such as earthquakes, plagues, floods, and hurricanes. The tour is fully interactive and questions are welcomed and encouraged. BOONE HALL PLANTATION

3:30 PM - 9:30 PM

We will start by exploring the Gullah Culture and learning about the Gullah influence on Lowcountry Cuisine. After the Gullah presentation, we will enjoy some of the finest Lowcountry Cuisine at the Cotton Dock overlooking the Horlbeck Creek.

Saturday, March 5, 2022

DINNER PARTY EVENT

5:00 PM - 9:00 PM

Charleston has an amazing selection of restaurants, but many do not cater to large parties like ours. All are encouraged to make small group reservations (4 or less), to one of the many great options. Dinner will be available for those that do not wish to eat out on the town.
